Durban Central Accommodation

A modern African metropolis

Durban central accommodation is conveniently located close to all the city's major attractions, which include the Durban beachfront, uShaka Marine World, Suncoast Casino, Hotels and Entertainment World, Wilson's Wharf, the Moses Mabhida Stadium and the Durban International Convention Centre, to name a few. The city is renowned for its festive atmosphere and delicious cuisine. It is a shopper's paradise with sophisticated shopping malls and precincts, craft markets and street bazaars. It is also a commercial and manufacturing hub connected to the business capitals of the world, and is built around one of the busiest ports in Africa.

City and beach accommodation

In the city centre, there is a wide selection of hotel accommodation ranging from budget or family-friendly, to five-star. Along the beachfront, there are many three- and four-star hotels, as well as self-catering units that have wonderful views of the Indian Ocean.

The leafy suburbs

The city is surrounded by bustling suburbs, each with its own distinct character. Glenwood, Musgrave and Morningside are very central, vibrant areas with restaurants, pubs, parks and malls in close proximity. These suburbs have many accommodation options, from homely B&Bs to funky backpackers and stylish hotels.

Durban West Accommodation

On nature's doorstep

If you wish to escape the hustle and bustle of the big city, there is an abundance of breathtaking scenery and excellent accommodation to the west of Durban.

The western suburbs

The peaceful suburbs of Westville, Cowies Hill and Pinetown are set in the scenic hills west of the city. These areas have a wealth of major amenities like the Pavilion Shopping Centre, the Westville Hospital and many sporting and gym facilities. They are conveniently located just 10-15 minutes' drive from the city centre.

Modern amenities, breathtaking scenery

Further inland are the cool, leafy suburbs of Kloof, Hillcrest, Gillitts and Botha's Hill, famed for their cosy country cottages and homely B&Bs. These villages offer all the modern amenities a traveller needs, as well as the seclusion of the countryside. They have upmarket shopping centres and stylish restaurants, and are just minutes from breathtaking natural destinations like the Krantzklouf Nature Reserve, Shongweni Dam and Nature Reserve, and Inanda Dam. The verdant Valley of 1000 Hills, with its nature reserves, exquisite views and cultural villages, is a few kilometres further afield.

Durban North/Umhlanga

▲ The pristine Umhlanga main beach with its beachfront hotels.

Renowned holiday destination

To the north of the city, across the Umgeni River, are the suburbs of Durban North, La Lucia and the coastal villages of Umhlanga Rocks and Umdloti. This region is just minutes from the King Shaka International Airport and offers every type of accommodation imaginable, from ultra luxurious boutique hotels to family-run B&Bs, self-catering apartments and rustic backpackers.

Experience the coastal lifestyle

Experience Durban's seaside village lifestyle where fishing, surfing, scuba diving and long walks on the beach are simply a part of life. This region is famed for its seafood restaurants, its endless golden beaches and the dynamic Gateway Theatre of Shopping – with its cinemas, restaurants, shops, skatepark and Wavehouse. Key experiences in this region are the Inanda Heritage Route, horse rides through the rolling coastal hills, dolphin and whale watching, a walk through the Hawaan Forest and a visit to Hazelmere Dam. Havana forest only open to public one a week. Umhlanga lagoon nature reserve open everyday.

Durban North/Umhlanga

Durban South Accommodation

▲ Aliwal Shoal – a world-class scuba diving destination.

A coastal paradise

The place of sweet waters

Just 25km south of Durban is the bustling coastal town of Amanzimtoti, the epicentre of the Sapphire Coast. This magnificent stretch of coast boasts 40km of golden beaches and lush coastal forests, interspersed with lively coastal villages. The accommodation is truly diverse, with everything from classy B&Bs, lodges, and hotels to self-catering apartments right on the beachfront. This region is famed for its historic golf courses and its world-class scuba diving destination – Aliwal Shoal – just off the coast of Umkomaas. It is also rich in cultural diversity and has a wealth of experiences not to be missed, including nature reserves, modern shopping amenities and traditional Zulu cultural villages.

Bluff – on the city's doorstep

The Bluff, 12km south of Durban, is renowned for its beautiful, unspoilt beaches, rock pools and indigenous coastal bush. The accommodation is typically situated in lush gardens, overlooking the ocean where dolphins and whales can be seen cruising the waters. The B&Bs, lodges and backpackers offer luxury suites, exquisite views and access to secluded beaches. The Bluff has a world-famous surfing destination called Cave Rock, an 18-hole golf course and a modern shopping and entertainment complex. The beachfront has a variety of pubs and restaurants, and is the perfect place to relax and unwind.
