WELCOME MESSAGE

by INK Tourism Chairperson: Mr. Mel Ntombela

It is my highest honor and joy to introduce and welcome you to INK community, the richest community in South Africa. This community's riches can be ascribed to its world-famous Woza eNanda tourist route. Woza eNanda Route, formerly known as Inanda Heritage route, boasts attractions such as Ohlange Institute, which was founded in 1900 by Dr. J.L. Dube, Gandhi settlement, which was founded in 1910, Inanda Seminary, which was founded in 1868, the mighty Shembe Church, which was founded in 1908, and many more.

The locals and the rest of the world know us for our rich history and heritage, but that's not all we have to offer. Travelers to our community can also take part in a variety of unique cultural, artistic, and recreational activities. Keep reading this booklet for more details on the many attractions and activities waiting for you in Durban's northern region.

INK Tourism, a community-based nonprofit organization tasked with marketing, administering, and expanding the tourism industry for the benefit of the INK (Tourism Business) Community, is here to help you when you visit Durban/INK. Members of the organization supply a variety of services and products, such as tour guiding, DMCs, lodging places, home-stays, and so on. INK Tourism will connect you with these vetted service providers to ensure that your visit to our vibrant community and beautiful city is enjoyable and memorable.

OHLANGE INSTITUTE

Ohlange Institute / School was founded in 1901 by the founding President of the African National Congress, Dr John Langalibalele Dube. The importance of this institution compelled Nelson Mandela, the globally acclaimed freedom fighter and South Africa's first democratically elected president, to vote there in April 27, 1994 when the country held its first all-races elections.

Dr John Langalibalele Dube was also the a founder of the first Zulu newspaper in 1903 called Ilanga laseNatali.

SEME PRECINCT

Pixley Isaka Ka Seme was born in October 1881 in the then colony of Natal. He was initially educated at a local mission school, and then went to the United States of America on a missionary scholarship for further education, including university studies at the Ivy League Columbia University in New York.

in 1912, Seme together with other African called for a convention of Africans to discuss their situation in South Africa and to look for peaceful means to change the status quo. The outcome of that call, of course, was the formation of the South African Native National Congress (SANNAC), later renamed the African National Congress (ANC). Source: thepresidency.gov.za

INK SOUVENIRS

WOWZULU is powered by Africa!Ignite, a Durban-based non-profit rural development agency that has worked across rural KwaZulu-Natal for more than a decade and whose team know the province like the back of their hands.

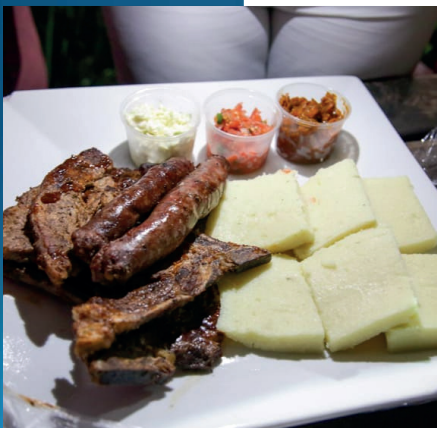

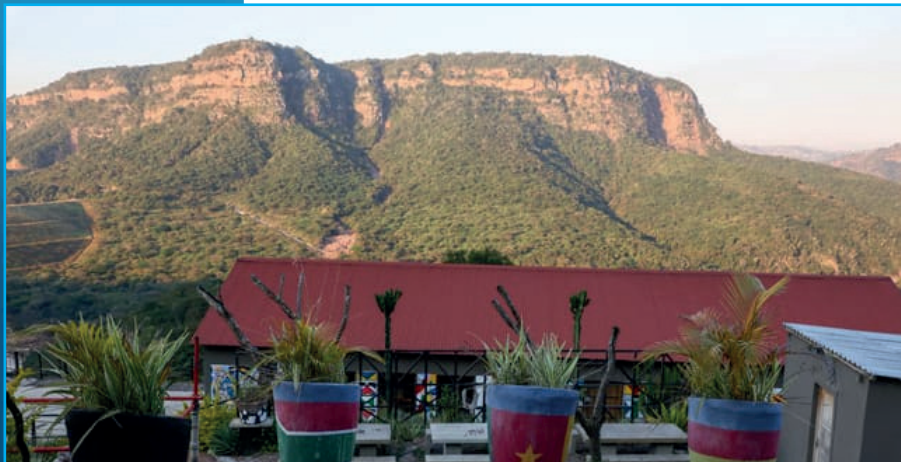

Our quest is to help women and youth in the province's achingly beautiful but materially poor deep-rural areas to improve their lives by earning a decent living and learning marketable skills. To create the WOWZULU offer.

WUSHWINI PAN AFRICAN ARTS CENTRE

With the scenic views of the Inanda Dam Wall, Wushwini Pan African Art Centre for Heritage and Culture is nestled underneath a mountain. Wushwini is home to Emhlabeni Lodge, Pan African Restaurant, Nokwe Patti Recording Studio and many art festivals and programmes like the, Uhuru International Community Arts Festival and the Botho Pan African Heritage Arts Festival.

Wushwini offers guests an opportunity to experience the tranquility of the environment as they enjoy a meal on the decked restaurant. The live performances keep the Art Centre alive as it has two indoor theatres, an outdoor theatre and a boma for a cultural story-telling experience around the fire. Evening braais at Emhlabeni Lodge's cabins or chalets allow for a star-gazing experience as Wushwini is located away from the hustle and bustle of the city lights.

K-CAP

The K-CAP Ekhaya Multi Arts Centre (EMCA) was launched on the 28th September 2003. K-CAP is a Non profit organisation led by an extraordinary man, Mr. Edmund Mhlongo, the founder and its Director.

KwaMashu Community Advancement Projects (K-CAP of Positive Arts) is a youth integrated arts and multimedia empowerment organization founded in October 1993. In April 1995, K-CAP was registered as a Development Trust for arts education and cultural advancement (Reg. No. IT1116/95) - it is also registered with the Department of Social Development as a not-for-profit organization and is now a Section 21 non-profit company.
